

FIRE PREVENTION SYSTEMS

in fire prevention systems, these pumps serve as supplementary pumps and operate when only a few sprinklers are open. Since the pumps operate at low-or-no flow conditions, pressure build-up is likely to occur and should be relieved by the installation of a BPRV. A simplified installation is shown above.